Message from Inspector Vicky Hebborn

As some of you may know, Inspector Mark Cant has now retired from Norfolk Police and has handed on the reigns of Downham Market Local Policing Command. My name is Vicky Hebborn, and I took up the post of Downham Market Inspector in May, I'd like to thank Mark for his tireless work on the district over the last six years. I'm looking forward to getting to know the area, and meeting many of you over the next few months.

Message from your Engagement Officer

I am PC Lee Anderton and I work as the Engagement Officer for West Norfolk. My responsibilities include working alongside and promoting the Special Constabulary, Police Support Volunteers, Neighbourhood Watch and Community Speedwatch. If you are interested in volunteering for any of these roles please e-mail me at Lee.Anderton@norfolk.pnn.police.uk.

During August I attended King's Lynn PRIDE and helped to run the Police stand for PRIDE in the Park which was an excellent family based event. August also saw the start of the training period for our new volunteers to the Special Constabulary and I look forward to seeing and reporting on their progress over the next few months.

What is happening in your area

It has been a busy month for King's Lynn and West Norfolk Police with a number of arrests made for various offences including possession of offence weapons, drink or drug driving, possession of a controlled substance and theft related offences. We have also reported a number of drivers for driving with no insurance/driving licence and they will be or have appeared in court.

We have policed a number of different public events including King's Lynn PRIDE, Sandringham Flower Show as well as Hunstanton tennis week just to name a few.

Neighbourhood Priorities

1. ASB in the Watlington area.
2. ASB during warm weather at the pontoons at the river in Watlington.
3. ASB in Downham Market
